Shri Manu Bhargava for the petitioner.
Shri Harshvardhan Nandwana P.P. for the State.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner, learned Public Prosecutor for the State and considered the materials placed on record.

Learned counsel for the petitioner argued that the challan in the matter has already been filed and the petitioner is in confinement since 25/3/2007 inasmuch as, offence alleged against him is punishable by maximum imprisonment for three years which is triable by the Magistrate of Ist Class.

Learned Public Prosecutor has opposed the bail application.

Without expressing any opinion on the merits of this case but taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of allegation and evidence against the petitioner and the fact that the petitioner is in confinement since 25/3/2007, I deem it appropriate to enlarge the petitioner on bail during the pendency of trial.

In the result, this bail application u/S.439 Cr.P.C. is allowed and it is directed that petitioner Paramjeet S/o Dalbir shall be released on bail in F.I.R. No.94/2007 P.S. M.I.A., Alwar subject to his furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs.20,000/- together with two sureties in the sum of Rs.10,000/- each to the satisfaction of the trial Court for his appearance before that court on all dates of hearing until conclusion of the trial.

In case, the petitioner is found repeating similar offence at any point of time in future, the prosecution would be at liberty to apply for cancellation of his bail before the trial court.
